

PRIEST FOUND DEAD IN COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Rev. Father Phillips Found Corpse in a House in New York City.

MASSAGE OPERATOR ARRESTED

Remains Found in His Room Told a Story, Which is Not Believed by Scranton, Pa., People Who Knew Him.

New York, May 18.—The body of a man found in a house in Ninth avenue has been identified as that of Rev. Edward S. Phillips, of St. Gabriel's church, Hazleton, Pa. He recently had a conference with Bishop Morgan in reference to the threatened strike in the iron and steel regions of Pennsylvania.

Clark Stanley, a massage operator, in whose rooms the body was found, is under arrest as a suspicious person. Stanley is subjected to a daily examination and is said to have conflicting stories. Mrs. Berry, from whom Stanley leased four rooms, in one of which the body was found, says that her tenant said he had come from San Francisco and called himself "Dr. Stanley." He was accompanied by a young woman whom he introduced as his wife.

Body Discovered by a Girl.
The body was discovered by a girl, the daughter of a man who went to Stanley's apartments to remove the body, which was hanging out of the window. The police were notified and a search of the body disclosed a number of papers. Among them was a letter from John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, addressed to the Rev. Dr. Edward S. Phillips, Hazleton, Pa. There were also several telegrams from Mitchell addressed to the priest, a half fare railway coupon such as is issued to clergymen, and several receipts addressed in Dr. Phillips' name.

It was made public for the first time, after the identification of the body, that two confidential informants had been sent out by Captain Detectives Titus and Mr. Phillips, who, according to this information, had been missing from his home in Hazleton since April 28. The first alarm was sent out on May 8 and a second on May 16, and detectives from the general office have been searching the hotels and hospitals in this city for the missing clergyman.

The police are searching for a woman who was known as Stanley's wife. They say this woman left the house in Ninth avenue on May 8 and has not returned. Father Phillips disappeared on May 8.

Stanley in his cell said to a coroner: "It is true that I knew the priest. I became acquainted with him about midnight May 8, in Ninth avenue and Forty-eighth street. He was talking to some girls, as in good humor, and as the par spoke to me I stopped. After some conversation I asked them to my rooms, where we had some whisky. The girls remained with us about two or three hours, and then left, saying they had to go home. After they left both the priest and I were taken ill. I do not know whether the girls had anything into our drinks or not but we were nauseated."

"The priest took a small bottle of medicine from his vest pocket, and swallowed a little, and then told me to do the same. I did so, and in a little while we both felt better. It was then the priest told me he was a Roman Catholic clergyman from Pennsylvania, and offered to financially back me in my cure. He did not tell me his name."

"I took a walk to get some air. I asked him to accompany me, but he said he would rather rest where he was. I returned two hours later, and found the priest gone. I have not seen him since."

Stanley is said to have a wife and 12-year-old son living in San Francisco.

Body Removed to Morgue.

The body of Father Phillips was removed to the morgue. Dr. A. F. Dougherty, of Wilkesbarre, who said he is a nephew of the priest, identified the body. He said Father Phillips had come to the city to buy some statuary for his church.

Coroner Bausch committed Stanley to the Tombs in default of $10,000 bail to await the result of the autopsy.

Stanley, in an interview with a reporter, said:

"This is terrible. I thought I had been arrested for a debt of $8 I owed a Mrs. Goldstein. I did not know the body of the priest was in my room."

"The police say the woman who lived with you as your wife brought the priest there that morning."

"That's a lie," he cried, excitedly. "She was not there that day at all. We had quarreled."

Coroner Bausch said he considered the finding of a pool of blood under the head very suspicious. He said he was convinced that the man was dead from the morning of the 9th. He was last seen alive at midnight the night before.

After the autopsy of the body of Father Phillips had been completed, Coroner Bausch announced that no marks of violence had been found on the body. The condition of the organs showed that the man had suffered from chronic nephritis and fatty liver. The coroner said that, owing to the suspicious circumstances surrounding the case, it was deemed advisable to have the vital organs analyzed.

Scranton, Pa., May 18.—Father Phillips was well known here, having been ordained at the cathedral, where he served as a curate for a number of years. The story alleged to have been told by Dr. Stanley is discredited by everybody who knew Dr. Phillips.

ay, college and university, a great many of youths and maidens is being eased amid the plaudits of fond eyes and devoted friends. Some forth to conquer; some, without a doubt, will be conquered. There is no need for us to give them advice; they will get a surfeit of that along with their diplomas. If the graduates have learned something beyond algebra and Latin, they start life under favorable conditions; if their education has been wholly in the branches embraced in their curriculum they will become milkops and failures. Womanliness, manliness, character; these are essentials; talent and book learning are worthless without them.

The army of graduates that pours forth from the doors of our institutions of learning is a vast one, and it grows greater yearly. On it rests one of the greatest hopes of the nation; for the educated men and women are, and should be, the leaders in the world's affairs. The responsibility resting upon the diploma-bearers is therefore one that they should be made to feel and to understand.

But a diploma does not mean that its holder is fully educated; there is no such thing known to humanity as a complete education. Socrates, Plato and Milton lived long and studied all their lives, yet they confessed in their old age that they had just begun to learn. As Milton expressed it, he felt himself a child, picking up pebbles on the beach, while the great ocean of knowledge still lay unexplored before him. This is the proper sentiment; even in a life time of study, one man can learn but a small share of what the world has to teach him. But he can learn enough to be useful. The truly wise are truly modest and never assume to "know it all." It is not given to mortal man to know it all. The youth who starts life full of conceit because he has had a school education may not be a fool, but he acts like one, and starts with a handicap.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING

Spent By Members of Wellsville High School Freshmen Class.

The freshmen class of the high school was delightfully entertained last evening by Miss Dora Lones, a member of the class, at her home on Tenth street. Unique invitations had been issued to "join in a search for flowers," the class being at present intent upon botany. The parlors were decorated with spring blossoms and a curious collection of miscellaneous articles, each bearing a number. These represented the names of the flowers, for which they were to search. A spirited hunt followed.

Golden Paisley was awarded the first prize, a crystal vase. Miss Gertrude Russell, as the least successful, was consoled with a package of flower seeds. Other games and refreshments followed.

HARKEN YE

To the Voice of East Liverpool People.

If you will but listen to your friends and neighbors, they will tell you how the pains and aches of a bad back, the annoyance of urinary troubles, the nervousness, the restlessness which comes from kidney ills can be relieved and cured. Read what one East Liverpool citizen says:

Mrs. Mary Hewitt, of St. George street, says: "I read in the Pittsburg Press an account of some one who had been cured of kidney complaint in that city by using Doan's Kidney Pills. The fact of such an account being published of one living in almost the same place had a tendency to convince me that there must be some truth in it, and I determined to try them myself. Some years before this I had a severe attack of rheumatism; for three months I lay helpless and after that I had trouble with my kidneys. For a year I suffered severely. My back was so bad that it felt as if I had a boil where the kidneys are. I could not bend, lean back against a chair or reach up. I could not lie on my back, and about every move I made caused pain. I had taken numerous remedies, but none brought the desired relief. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the W. & W. pharmacy, did what no other remedy was able to do. I took them regularly for a short time and found them to be. I can heartily recommend them. After using them I was rid of backaches and other symptoms of kidney trouble."

The Hostess' Funny Story.

"A very dignified young man took a seat in a smoking car," said the hostess, who joined in the after dinner story telling. "Near him were three traveling salesmen, well dressed, jolly fellows, one of whom suggested a game of cards, and the others agreed. They appealed to the young man to take part and make up a four handed game."

"Thank you; I never play cards," came the response to the invitation.

"I am sorry for that. Will you have a cigar with us?" added the spokesman, producing his case.

"I am obliged to you, but I never smoke," replied the dignified young man.

"They thought they would jolly the young fellow out of dignity, so the leader produced a 'traveling companion' and asked:

"As you do not play cards nor smoke you will not refuse to join us in a drink?"

"I thank you, gentlemen, but I never drink."

"With this a venerable man with ministerial aspect sitting in the seat behind the young man reached forward and tapped him on the shoulder.

"I have heard what you have said to these men," said the sedate old fellow, "and I admire you for the stability of character which has enabled you to shun bad habits. I have a daughter in the parlor car, whom I should like to have you meet."

"I thank you, sir," replied the young man, turning about and facing the gentleman, "but the fact is I never intend to marry."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A UNIQUE SENTENCE.

THE NOVEL PENALTY A JUDGE IMPOSED UPON TWO MEN.

Both Prisoners Were Condemned Jail Until One of Them, a College Graduate, Taught the Other How Read and Write.

Along in the seventies the late Jud Arnold Krekel was holding court in Jefferson City, relates an old time when there appeared before him two men charged and indicted for a violation of the United States laws, one of whom will be called Brown. He was charged with cutting timber on the public domain. Brown was about 4 years old and had been reared on the border in Arkansas and never had an opportunity for schooling, hence was unable to read or write. In his endeavors to get a living he had cut timber suitable for making ax handles on United States lands, which led to his arrest and imprisonment. The other man will be called Jones, for the real name of both men are not known in the memory of any one who witnessed the incident.

Jones was charged with and indicted for having sold liquor to the Indians. Mr. Jones was a native of New York, a graduate of Union college and was educated for a lawyer. He possessed a highly cultured mind, a good Latinist and thoroughly scholarly in all sorts of books. Not succeeding in his profession in his native state, more from lack of application than otherwise, he left that country and plunged into the great west and located nobody knew where, but he drifted into the lower strata of society, and to obtain the necessities of life he resorted to "bootlegging" among the red men of the Indian Territory border. His arrest and imprisonment followed.

The two men were arraigned before Judge Krekel and the indictments read. They both pleaded guilty and threw themselves upon the mercy of the court. The court questioned both prisoners at length and drew from each his history. He recounted the wrongs they had been guilty of against society. He did this in a kindly tone and manner, suggesting in a mild form that both might have been useful members of some community had they sought honorable means and methods to secure a livelihood.

The court seemed puzzled how to assess a punishment that would meet the ends of justice and protect the government, its lands, its wards and society. Finally, sitting upright in his chair, looking over his glasses as both men stood before him, in a voice little louder and more positive than usual he said:

"Mr. Brown, it is the sentence of the court that you be confined in the Cole county jail until you are educated to read and write." The judge then turned his eyes upon the other prisoner at the bar and, possibly in a louder voice, said, "Mr. Jones, it is the sentence of the court that you be confined in the Cole county jail until you have taught Mr. Brown to read and write, and I enjoin upon the keeper of the jail to afford you every facility possible with the safe keeping of his prisoners."

The lawyers and spectators in court looked with astonishment at each other as the sentence was concluded, and the marshal led the prisoners out of the courtroom.

It was the second term of the court after this incident when the marshal conducted Brown and Jones into court, and it was announced by the court that Brown had completed his education—ready to graduate—able to read and write. Judge Krekel looked over his glasses and asked that the prisoner give him an evidence of his being able to read. Brown stood up and read a few paragraphs from a newspaper to the satisfaction of the court, when he said, "Mr. Clerk, will you let him sit at a table and write me a letter?"

Paper, pen, ink and a seat were furnished Brown, who went to work to write a letter to the court. For some time the poor fellow struggled with the task, and in the meantime Jones was very nervous, fearing he would be compelled to go back to jail and "take up school" again. Finally the clerk said, "May it please your honor, the prisoner can write, but cannot form sentences to make it intelligible."

"Mr. Clerk," said the court, not taking his eyes from the court docket he was looking at, "you will dictate a letter for him and see what headway he makes with that." The clerk dictated a letter that the prisoner wrote quite readily, which subsequently was passed up to the court, who read the same, and after giving the prisoners a short lecture both were discharged and walked from the courtroom free men. —Jefferson City Tribune.

Fish That Change Color.

It has been found that certain prawns, common along the coasts of England, change their color at least twice every 24 hours in order to harmonize with the stronger or weaker light prevailing near the surface or in the deeper water. As evening approaches these fish lose their distinctive day colors, and all assume a transparent azure hue. The change begins with a reddish glow, followed by a green tinge which gradually melts into blue. The day and night change has become so habitual that specimens kept in perpetual light or perpetual darkness nevertheless undergo the periodic alteration of color.

Dietary Repartee.

"I think," said A. Bronson Alcott in one of his conversations, "when a man lives on beef, he becomes something like an ox. If he eats mutton, he becomes sheepish, and if he feeds upon pork may he not become swinish?" "That may be," said Dr. Walker, "but when a man lives on nothing but vegetables I think he is apt to be prettily small notations."

Road People Say They Will Be Ready to Start Work
June 1.

William Harvey states that the sylvania company is now buying right of way for the Monaca extension of the Panhandle. He has received $500 for the right of way above his farm above Chester and stated that Mrs. Kinney, whose

Ball at Fairview.

The young people of Fairview held a ball near the Fairview min-spring last evening. A large plat-was erected for this occasion about 100 couples were present.
Fairview orchestra furnished the
and the affair was highly end. Many Chester people were present.

Warrant Reported Out.

A warrant is said to have been out for the arrest of the lad who was with the Morrow boy, of New Jersey, on the night the latter drowned.

THE NEWS OF CHESTER.

W. H. Banfield, of Beaver, Pa., was visitor at the mill today.

The oil well on the Williams farm came in dry. It was finished last night.

Dr. Lewis returned this evening

ing, W. Va.

Mrs. Samuel Webb and Miss Mattie Smith, of Fairview, were Chester visitors today.

Mrs. Henry Logan, who resides near Asbury, is very ill with lung trouble, which threatens to develop into consumption.

Presiding Elder Mitchell, of the Pittsburg M. E. conference, was a Chester visitor today. He will preach at Asbury chapel tomorrow.

George Silverthorn, Charles Wells, Ora Jackson and several other Chester youths have formed an athletic club. They will spend most of their time practicing with the boxing gloves and punching bag. They have pugilistic aspirations.

She Gave Herself Away.

Judge Davis was one day in his private office when he was president of the senate and acting vice president.
A woman came into the room to see him. He turned and said, "Well, madam, what can I do for you?" She was neatly dressed in black, with an air of extreme poverty. She told a wretched tale of sorrow and suffering, winding up with the climax that she and her little family were actually starving and had not tasted food for two days. The judge seemed deeply moved. He excused himself for not attending to the case for the moment, as the senate was nearly ready to open.

He looked at his watch with an air of vexation, as if it were not going,
and said, "Can any one tell me what time it is?" His visitor pulled out a gold watch and told him the time. The judge said, "Can it be true that your children have been without food for two days when you have a gold watch in the house?" The woman saw the point of the judge's question and called out, "You are a hateful old thing!" and dashed out of the room. She was a professional dead beat.

A Pair of Lovers.

Two American men in Venice spent their first evening loafing round the lagoons in a gondola, it being moonlight, of course, and all the rest of the sentimental, charming things it is always in Venice.

"Here comes a gondola," stage whispered one American to the other, "that probably contains a pair of lovers. See how absorbed those two dim figures evidently are in each other. Gondolier, other gondolas, the witchery of the moonlight and the place—to all of it they are oblivious. Oh, what a spot for sentiment! The air is full of it!"

And as the two gondolas glided past each other the Americans heard the unmistakable accents of a fellow countryman, "I'll see your three and raise you five."—Philadelphia Record.

APPREHENSION FELT

For Mrs. McKinley
 Decided Not to Attend Today, but to Speak at Workmen at Union Iron Works and Then Return to His Sick Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 18.—12:15
 A. M.—AS THE NIGHT WORE ON
 MRS. MCKINLEY BECAME REST-LESS AND THE EARLY MORNING HOURS WERE LOOKED FORWARD TO WITH MORE APPREHENSION.
 SHE DID NOT TAKE NOURISH-MENT AS FREELY AS SHE HAD DONE EARLIER IN THE DAY.
 POWERFUL STIMULANTS, IN-CLUDING OXYGEN, WERE ADMIN-ISTERED DURING THE AFTER-NOON AND EVENING.

THE BONE FELON ON HER
 HAND HAS SPREAD AND HAS DIS-CHARGED PUS FROM ANOTHER PLACE. THE NEW WOUND HAS BEEN LANCED.

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 18.—MR.
 CORTELYOU ISSUED THE FOLLOW-ING BULLETIN ABOUT 9:33
 LAST NIGHT.
 "MRS. MCKINLEY'S PHYSICIANS
 FIND THE IMPROVED CONDITION OF THE MORNING HAS BEEN MAINTAINED THROUGHOUT THE DAY."

President Won't See Launching.
 San Francisco, May 18.—Chief of Police Sullivan, who had about 9 p.
 m. last night just come from the Scott residence, stated to the press representatives that Secretary Cortelyou said Mrs. McKinley was holding her own. He also said that the president would not attend the launching of the battleship Ohio today.

About 9:30 a. m. today the president expected to go to the Union Iron Works on the tug Slocum. He was to address the workmen there and then return to the Scott residence.

San Francisco, May 18.—President McKinley described the marked improvement in Mrs. McKinley's condition Friday as a transformation. Mrs.
 McKinley's condition Thursday night improved to such an extent that fairly nonplussed the doctors, brightened the anxious and devoted husband and filled the city with joy and thanksgiving.

The sinking spell that was feared in the early hours before dawn did not come. There was a slight tendency in that direction, but that was all.
 The physicians were so favorably impressed with their patient's condition at the early morning consultation that they issued a bulletin announcing that Mrs. McKinley had passed a good night and informed the public that there would not be another consultation until evening.

This reassuring news, posted at all the newspaper offices, was received with delight by the people. It was communicated to all the members of the cabinet, and immediately after breakfast they hurried out to the Scott residence to express personally to their chief their pleasure in the glad tidings. The joy in the president's heart was reflected in his face and a look at his countenance Friday was enough to dispel immediate apprehension. He looked haggard and careworn Thursday; Friday his face fairly beamed. The feeling of cheerfulness continued throughout the day.

Although the other physicians left early in the morning, Dr. Rixey did not leave the residence, and Drs. Hirschfelder and Gibbons were always where they could be reached at a moment's notice. Telegrams continue to pour in from all parts of the country, asking for news from the sick room, and the president received many messages Friday congratulating him upon the reports of the improvement in Mrs. McKinley's condition. All the foreign ambassadors and ministers at Washington have sent messages of sympathy, doubtless by direction of the governments they represent. One of the telegrams which came Friday was from General Ahumada, governor of Chihuahua, who met the president and Mrs. McKinley at El Paso.

Many Callers Made Inquiries.
 There were callers innumerable at the residence, but most of them left cards and expressions of hope for Mrs. McKinley's continued improvement. Flowers arrived in profusion until all the rooms were filled with them. It was expected that if Mrs.
 McKinley should continue to gain ground last night the president may attend the launching of the Ohio today. His visit to the Pacific coast was for the purpose of witnessing the launching of the battleship, named in honor of his native state, from the works of the company that built the Oregon, and he would be glad not to disappoint the expectations that have been built upon his presence. But if he shall go, it will be a hurried trip and he will not be absent from his wife's bedside for more than an hour.

The president went for a short drive about noon, and Secretary Cortelyou, who has been under a great strain during the last few days, was able to take a little rest. The ladies of the cabinet, at various times during the day, were at the Scott residence, and came away sharing in the general feeling of relief.

Mrs. McKinley, it was believed, was not entirely out of danger last night.
 Her vitality was so low and she was so weak that a change for the worse would not be unexpected at any moment, and it was feared she would not have reserve strength enough to weather another sinking spell such as she experienced Thursday morning. Her mind was clear during her waking moments Friday. She asked Friday morning for coffee and also to be permitted to wash her hands.
 There was no necessity for the administration of strong heart stimulants during the day, although brandy continued to be given from time to time. That and beef tea were practically all the nourishment she took.
 If the president shall attend the

of the Ohio, it was expected he would be driven rapidly to the residence of the transport Slocum to convey him to the yard, and the new battleship shall slide down the ways he would return to the Scott residence. He will attend neither the luncheon at the Union League club nor the reception that has been arranged. The citizens banquet for tonight was declared officially abandoned Thursday.

The launching of the Ohio today is to have been made a notable occasion. Great preparations had been made and an elaborate program had been planned. Much of the program will now, however, be curtailed. Miss Barber, niece of Mrs. McKinley, in the absence of the mistress of the white house, will press the electric button, and as the ship begins to glide down the ways, Miss Helen Desher, a relative of Governor Nash, will christen the ship with a bottle of champagne.

It is hardly probable that the governor of Ohio, who has traveled across the continent to attend the launching, will be able to be present. While he was much better than Thursday his eyes were so swollen last night from the poisoned oak, which he encountered during his visit to the big trees at Santa Cruz, that his physicians do not believe it will be wise for him to go into the light and open air. His only danger is catching cold and there might be a strong sea breeze at the ship yard.

Secretary Long will not remain here longer than Monday, owing to the condition of his daughter, who is ill at Colorado Springs. It is his intention to go there Monday and join the presidential party at some point in Colorado.

PREDESTINATION.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY APPAR-ENTLY BELIEVES IN IT.

Assured a Presbyterian He Hoped Church Wouldn't Abandon It.
 20th Century Celebration.

Philadelphia, May 18.—Although it has been for years the custom of the Presbyterian general assembly to begin the real business sessions of the meeting on the Friday following the opening day, an innovation was introduced this year in the form of a twentieth century celebration at the Academy of Music. Prominent ministers and laymen from all sections of the country participated in the exercises incident to the celebration.
 The twentieth century meeting was in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the general assembly at St. Louis last year. The program was laid down in the resolution of the assembly.

A prayer and praise service occupied the greater portion of the morning session. A feature of this ceremony was a choir of 300 voices, selected from the various Presbyterian churches in Philadelphia.

John H. Converse Presided.
 John H. Converse, LL. D., of this city, presided. The celebration began with the singing of the long metre doxology, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," which was followed by an invocation by Rev. Dr.
 Minton, the new moderator. Addresses were made by Rev. Willis G.
 Craig, D. D., LL. D., of Chicago, who presented a review of the nineteenth century, and Rev. Henry C. McCook, D. D., S. C. D., of this city, on "Progress of the Presbyterian Church in the Nineteenth Century."

During the course of his remarks
 Dr. Craig said the world-wide problem of universal evangelization could only be solved when nations were brought into contact with each other.
 "We must annihilate distance," he said; "we must subjugate nature, and come face to face with the people whom we expect to convert."

Rev. Dr. McCook's address was principally a history of the Presbyterian church. In speaking of the doctrine of predestination he referred touchingly to Mrs. McKinley. He stated that President McKinley, on meeting a member of the revision committee, remarked to the latter:
 "So you are going to revise your confession of faith," to which the committee member replied: "We are going to consider the question."

"Well," responded the president, "I hope you won't revise out of it the doctrine of predestination."
 "Let us hope," said Dr. McCook,
 "that as our beloved president sits by the bedside of the noble woman whom he wedded in a Buckeye Presbyterian church, this goodly doctrine may be a comfort to him, whatever the issue, and that he may say with resignation, 'Not my will, but Thine be done.'"

Wanamaker Occupied the Chair.
 John Wanamaker occupied a chair at last night's session. The principal speaker was Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D. D., LL. D., of St. Louis, who delivered an address on "The Opportunity and Duty of the Presbyterian Church in the Twentieth Century."

Rev. Dr. M. A. Brownson, of this city, chairman of the twentieth century fund committee, read the report of the committee, which told in detail the methods adopted to raise money for the church. Rev. Dr. W.
 H. Roberts, treasurer of the fund, presented a supplementary report showing receipts up to noon Friday
 as follows:

For boards of the church, $106,030;
 for colleges and academies, $330,642;
 for theological seminaries, $110,767;
 for hospitals, $61,659; for Young Men's Christian association, $117,464; miscellaneous, $30,000; for local debts on churches, $1,081,654; for improvements in local churches and building new churches, $1,537,913.
 Total, $3,397,031. This amount has been contributed by 1,000 of the 7,800
 Presbyterian churches in the country.

Dr. Roberts stated that he had Friday received information that in St.
 Louis subscriptions amounting to $180,000 had been received and had not been included in the report. He was also informed, he said, that one-half of the amount required to remove the mortgage on the Presbyterian building in New York had been raised. This was not included in his report.

A HOUSE BLOWN UP

Policeman's Residence Wrecked by Dynamite While the Family Was Asleep—12 Arrests Made.

Akron, O., May 18.—The home of Policeman William J. Bruner was wrecked by a dynamite explosion, but the lives of the entire family were saved. The deed was almost certainly prompted by revenge, and 12 men and boys are now in custody charged with suspicion. Officer Bruner has been particularly active in the efforts to discover miscreants who have extended their misdeeds even to arson. Several times the officer had received notes threatening his life.

The explosive was placed next to the bedroom in which Mr. and Mrs.
 Bruner sleep. The room was completely wrecked and their bed was covered with debris. Their 2-year-old baby was found at the other end of the room under a mass of wreckage, unhurt, while the bed had been hurled out into the yard. Another child also escaped.

Among the prisoners are: Melvin Boone, aged 18; Irvine James, 17; Elmer Hall, 14, and Homer Eisenheimer, 15. The dynamite was evidently taken from the clay bank of Contractor Asa Whitstein, in the East End. About 40 pounds were taken from a box containing tools.

STOCK MARKET IMPROVED.

Fever and Nervousness Practically Gone Friday.

New York, May 18.—The fever and nervousness were practically all gone out of the stock market Friday.

The belief in the settlement of the Northern Pacific controversy is felt to offer assurance of a more effective neutralization of the whole western railroad territory than has ever before been known. The prominence of the stocks of railroads in that region was due to this cause. There were very definite reports afloat that a dividend of Missouri Pacific at the rate of 5 per cent was an early probability. The movement in the local traction was due to the inauguration of the underground trolley on additional lines of the Metropolitan Street Railway and estimates of the benefits to result to the Manhattan systems from the use of electricity. Sugar was affected by reports of an agreement with the coffee interests and was heavily bought for Boston speculative account. Expectation of a melon-cutting helped Consolidated Gas. A reported settlement with the city authorities giving assurance against interference was the cause of the cause of the strength of Peoples Gas.
 The better prospect of a settlement with the machinists and the progress of measures towards renewed organization of the United States Steel corporation companies, indicated by the election of new directors, induced buying of the United States Steel stocks. Reports of large deposits of stock in assent to the proposed exchange with Amalgamated Copper explained the demand for that stock.
 There was talk of closer relations between the American and Continental Tobacco companies. The Pennsylvania railroad was said to be perfecting its control of the subsidiary coal carrying roads.

Owing to the heavy receipts from the interior, the banks were expected to show a gain in cash in today's statement of nearly $5,000,000, after allowing for gold exports. This promise neutralized the effect of the falling due on Monday of the third instalment on Union Pacific bond subscription, involving $10,000,000.

The bond market was broad and prices were well sustained. Total sales, par value, $3,455,000.
 U. S. 3s declined 1/4 per cent on the last call.

EASE IN MONEY MARKET.

Dun's Review Said It Encouraged Business Enterprise.

New York, May 18.—R. G. Dun's review of the state of trade, issued today, was expected to say in part:
 Crop reports continue in the main favorable and ease in the money market encouraged business enterprise, which looked agnost at the collapse of stock speculation. The calmer tone in securities is welcomed in all directions. As against the favorable developments referred to there is but one adverse factor, and the labor disturbances in several quarters are not considered likely to be a long continued drawback, and promise not to very generally affect the trades involved. Less urgency for early delivery of iron and steel products was reported at manufacturing centers.
 With mills assured of activity beyond the middle of the year and some uncertainty regarding the labor organizations' attitude on the wage schedule, there is a disposition to let new engagements wait as long as possible. Unusual activity is seen in agricultural supplies and some noteworthy shipments were reported during the week, while makers of this class of machinery purchased freely of bar iron. Structural shapes are in such active domestic demand that little attention is given to available foreign contracts. Coke production is still enormous, as is natural with iron furnaces operating at the greatest weekly capacity ever recorded.

Both wheat and corn continue to sell at more than 10 cents a bushel above the price at this date last year, and the fluctuations in speculative options are much wider. Contracts in May corn have been closed at phrenomenal prices, owing to clever manipulation at Chicago, and next crop options are sustained beyond the prices warranted by encouraging crop reports. More foreign inquiry for corn increased Atlantic exports for the week to 2,458,681 bushels, against only 1,211,244 in the previous week, but the movement is still far below the figure of a year ago. Wheat goes out in greater volume than a year ago, but flour shipments are comparatively light.

Failures for the week numbered 177 in the United States, against 177 last year, and 19 in Canada, against 80 last year.

DUKE THANKED PRESIDENT.

He and Australians Pleased by Sending of Brooklyn.

Washington, May 18.—The following cablegrams have been exchanged:
 "President of the United States, Washington.

"I thank you, sir, for sending your fine cruiser, the Brooklyn, which I have just had the pleasure of visiting, to Australia, to take part in communal celebrations. Your action is deeply appreciated by myself and the Australian subjects of my father, the king.

(Signed) "George."
 "His Royal Highness, the Duke of Cornwall and York, Melbourne.

"Owing to my absence from Washington an acknowledgement of your royal highness' courteous telegram of the 7th instant has been delayed. I thank you for your kind expression of appreciation of this government's action in sending the Brooklyn to Melbourne.

(Signed) "William McKinley."

Generals and Soldiers Arrived.

San Francisco, May 18.—The transport Sheridan arrived from Manila via Nagasaki, with Generals John F.
 Bates and Fred D. Grant, 65 officers and 1,823 enlisted men of the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth regiments.

$100 REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

DEATH OF MRS. GAGE

of the Secretary of the Treasury Died Last Night in Washington.

OFFERED FROM HEART TROUBLE

Followed Grip Complications—Her Husband, a Married Daughter by Former Husband and Attending Physician Present.

Washington, May 18.—Mrs. Lyman Gage, wife of the secretary of the treasury, died at her residence, No. 1715 Massachusetts avenue, North west, about 9:30 o'clock last night, after an illness of about nine weeks' duration. With her when the end came were her husband, her married daughter, Mrs. E. F. Pierce, of Evanston, Ill., and Dr. W. W. Johnston, the attending physician. For a time before her death Mrs. Gage suffered considerable pain, but she maintained her bright and cheerful demeanor, and was conscious to the last. Heart trouble, the result of grip complications, was the immediate cause of death. Mrs. Gage was exposed to the inclement weather for about an hour on inauguration day, but at the time her health did not seem to be affected. On the 11th of March she left here for Evanston to visit her married daughter. While there she experienced a chill and took to her bed, but soon recovered sufficiently to return to Washington, where she had been confined to her room ever since. Mrs. Gage was a native of Albany, N. Y., and 58 years of age. She was married to Secretary Gage in Denver, Col., in 1887. There were no children from their union. Mrs. Pierce being a child by a former husband. Mrs. Gage has two children living at Evanston.

The remains will be interred in Rose Hill cemetery, near Chicago. Further than this the funeral services have not yet been arranged. It is probable, however, that religious services of a simple character will be held at her former residence in this city on Sunday morning, in which event the body will leave here by a morning train for Chicago.

Mrs. Gage was an Episcopalian in her religious belief, but during their residence here she and the secretary have had a pew in the Metropolitan M. E. church, where the president attends. Rev. Dr. Hillis, of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, is an intimate friend of the family, and it is possible that he may be asked to come to Washington to conduct the funeral services here.

During their residence here in Washington Secretary and Mrs. Gage have taken quite an active part in social life at the capital. Mrs. Gage was a woman of charming personality, and with her husband delighted in extending the hospitality of their elegant home on Massachusetts avenue. Mrs. Gage was probably closer to Mrs. McKinley than any other of the ladies of the cabinet.

San Francisco, May 18.—The news of the death of Mrs. Gage was received by the members of the president's official family in this city with expressions of regret. The Associated Press dispatch, which was transmitted to Secretary Cortelyou at the Scott residence, conveyed the news to President McKinley. Extra precautions were taken to keep the news of Mrs. Gage's death from Mrs. McKinley.

FOR FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Bill Introduced in Pennsylvania House Proposing June 1.

Harrisburg, May 18.—A concurrent resolution fixing June 1 for final adjournment was offered in the house Friday by Mr. Creasy, of Columbia. Under the rules the resolution lies over one day. Mr. Creasy gave notice that he would call it up on Monday night. Mr. Paul, of Philadelphia, offered a resolution relative to the apportionment bills, which was ruled out of order. His proposition is that the committee in charge of the apportionment bills be requested to report them not later than Tuesday, that April calendar be prepared for the bills on Wednesday, and that they be taken up daily until they have been considered from first reading to final passage.

Mr. Haag, of Schuylkill, offered a resolution, which was ruled out of order, recalling from the senate the bill passed Thursday providing that until 1909, when less than four judges of the superior court are to be elected, each elector may vote for the entire number.

The legislative apportionment bill was read the first time. After reading several house bills the second time the house adjourned until Monday evening.

The King's Finger Bowl.

When a member of the royal family comes to dinner, it is a point of etiquette to provide none but the illustrious guest with a finger bowl at the end of the banquet. The other diners must get on somehow without that convenience.

The reason is a curious one. In early Georgian days one never knew who was loyal. Every other man might be a Jacobite in his secret heart. Now, it was a piece of Jacobite ritual whenever the toast of "The King" was drunk secretly to pass the goblet over any water that happened to be by the drinker. This was supposed to convert the toast into that of "The King Over the Water," the exiled Stuart at Rome or St. Germain.

On this becoming known the court insisted that there should be no water within reach of any guest, and the prohibition still holds.—London News.

Cheap.

Lover—You are getting prettier every day.

Sweet Girl—Just now I am living on brown bread and water to improve my complexion.

"How long can you keep that up?"

"Oh, indefinitely."

"Then let's get married."—Exchange.

GUARDED BY SOLDIERS

Cars May Be Run at Albany Today.

Two Men Shot by Soldiers Died.

Albany, N. Y., May 18.—After hours of conference the officials of the United Traction company and the committee from the organizations of the strikers adjourned without the situation apparently being changed.

The company will proceed to run its cars today on every line within the city limits with the aid of a military force that now numbers about 3,000 men.

The only step toward settlement that was made was the appointment last night of a committee from the common council to arbitrate and the adoption of a resolution declaring that if a settlement is not effected by Monday night the council shall revoke the franchise of the company.

The company declared that such action will be of no effect, as the road now has a vested right that cannot be taken from it.

The reason there was no settlement last night was because the company refused to discharge the men brought from other points to take the strikers' places.

There is a new phase of the difficulty and promises to develop far more serious consequences and impediments in the way of settlement than have been anticipated at any time since the strike was called. It is a matter which had not been considered by the strikers or the public, and puts an entirely new aspect on the situation. The company, it is learned, on the wage question was willing to increase the wages of the extra men and night rippers to 19 1/2 cents per hour, but refused to establish a uniform rate of 20 cents an hour for all employees, as requested by the strikers.

EDWIN F. UHL DEAD

Former Ambassador to Germany Expired—A Remarkable Career.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 18.—Hon. Edwin F. Uhl, former ambassador to Germany under the Cleveland administration, died here. He had been ill nearly a year with Bright's disease.

Mr. Uhl is survived by a widow and three daughters.

INJUNCTION DISMISSED.

Lajoie and Others Can Play With Philadelphia American League.

Philadelphia, May 18.—The injunction proceedings begun by the Philadelphia National League baseball club to enjoin Second Baseman Lajoie and Pitchers Bernard and Fraser from playing baseball with the local American league club, and to enjoin the managers of that club from engaging the players, were dismissed by the judges of the common pleas court.

The judges said the contract lacks mutuality. The court said if the injunction was granted Lajoie's services would be subject to the Philadelphia baseball club for all time, while if the club cared to do so it could dispense with him on 10 days' notice.

DEPTH OF A RAINFALL.

The Method by Which It Is Accurately Measured.

Probably one question that has puzzled the lay mind is how the depth of a rainfall may be accurately determined. The way it is done is this:

A funnel, whose larger aperture represents a surface of 100 square inches is placed in a position where it may catch the direct fall of the rain, with the rim of the funnel extending perhaps an inch or more beyond the platform to which it may be fixed. This is for the purpose of preventing any rain from being washed into the funnel and increasing the true fall. From this funnel the water runs to a tube which bears an exact and carefully determined ratio to the area of the funnel's mouth, say one-tenth.

If, therefore, the tube shows water to the depth of an inch, it is clear that one-tenth of an inch of rain has fallen. The tube is provided with a carefully graduated scale so that the fall may be readily seen. Three inches of rain would show a depth of 30 inches in a tube one-tenth the size of the receiving aperture, and the decimals of an inch could be quickly noted by observing the scale.

If placed on the roof of a building, the apparatus should be kept away from the edges to prevent any peculiar slant of the wind carrying into the funnel a larger proportion of rain than would fall into it under normal conditions. The larger the aperture of the receiving funnel is made the more accurate will be the results obtained.

A curious fact that has been noted in connection with rainfalls is that gauges placed on roofs usually gather less water than those placed on the ground. This is accounted for on the theory that the rain in falling absorbs some of the moisture of the air, and the greater distance it falls the larger will be the bulk of the individual drops.—New York Herald.

THE DEER'S HORNS.

They Present all the Phenomena of Animal and Vegetable Growth.

Why and how is the deer so peculiarly unlike any other of the bovine race, the horn differing so materially from all the horned cattle in its composition, growth, maturity and decline? It presents all the phenomena of animal and vegetable growth. It sprouts from the brain without any prolongation of the frontal bone. It rises and breaks through the sinews and takes root on the bone, growing the same as a vegetable. It is nourished by and secretes albumen upon the surface and disposes of the fibrine the same as an animal.

It is clothed with a skin and hairy coat very different from that on the rest of the body. This covering and hair possess a property unknown in other animal bodies—that of being a styptic to stanch its own blood when wounded. It carries marks of the age on the buck by putting out an extra branch each year, which shows an additional power each year to produce them. And this power does not exist in the female. So this difference is more distinctly marked than in any other class of animals. Again, the horn possesses properties unknown in any other animal matter. It is entirely odorless, capable of resisting putrefaction and almost impervious to the effects of the atmosphere.

And still water at 500 degrees F. will dissolve these horns readily, even though they are not soluble in alcohol and resist the action of acids and alkalis. It is the only vegetable animal substance that we know of that does not perpetuate itself by procreation.

The male and the female are sustained by the same nutrition and elements, and the male only produces horns. This phenomenon is quite as much of a curiosity as the absence of the horn in the buck after shedding.

The Dramatic in Life.

The undying interest which is taken in the theater is explained by the very profound line with which Shakespeare began a very silly speech, "All the world's a stage." People as a rule take no interest in anything that is not dramatically (or, as in the case of politics, melodramatically) formulated. Any creed to be popular must be dramatically stated. Therefore the gospels are preferred to the epistles. Aesop's fables are remembered because they are the truth about things stated dramatically and morally.—F. G. Bernard Shaw.

An Armless Wonder.

Bulwer in his "Artificial Changeling" makes mention of one John Simons, a native of Berkshire, England, born without arms or hands, who could write with his mouth, thread a needle, tie a knot, shuffle, cut and deal a pack of cards, etc. This wonderful personage was exhibited in London in 1653.

Quite a Relief.

Husband—What do you do when you hit your thumb with a hammer? You can't swear.

Wife—No; but I can think with all my might and main what a perfectly horrid, mean, inconsiderate, selfish brute you are not to drive the nails yourself.—New York Weekly.

IN THE WEST END

Young Woman Injured by a Fall.

Street Sprinkler Wanted.

Miss Jeannette Hill, of Seventh street, sustained severe injuries as the result of a fall Wednesday evening. She was sitting on the bannister of a porch when she lost her balance and fell backward, alighting on an iron picket fence. She was badly bruised and shaken up and it is feared that she may be injured internally. She is unable to be out.

Miss Mary Earle, of Seventh street, is off duty owing to illness.

An attempt was made to steal a canvas tent from John Howard's barn Wednesday afternoon. The sneak thieves broke the lock on the barn and dragged the canvas outside, where it was found when Mr. Howard returned from the show. It is thought the thieves had planned to work during circus hours, but were discovered and fled.

The residents of West End desire to make an inquiry as to the whereabouts of the street sprinkler and sweeper. They say they have not seen either machine in their part of town this season. No attempt has been made to clean any of the avenues although the dust in Jethro street is an inch thick. They would appreciate a visit from the street commissioner's force.

The street car company is hauling material to Pleasant Heights for the extension of the line to that point. It is said that a large force of men will be put to work here soon, and that the extension will be completed within two or three weeks. This will be gratifying news to the people of Pleasant Heights. They are farther out of the city than any other suburb not connected by a street car line, and the long walk from the West End has been the greatest drawback to the growth of the suburb. With proper street car connection Pleasant Heights will be one of the best residence parts of the city.

Benevolent Old Lady (to little girl)—My little dear, do you wash your face and hands every morning?

"No, mum."

"Good gracious! That's perfectly dreadful. Do you wash your face in the middle of the day?"

"No, mum."

"Dear me! When do you wash yourself?"

"I never washes."

"Horrible! It is shocking how depraved the lower classes are! I must organize a society to see that children are properly washed. Tell me, little one, do you really never wash yourself?"

"No, mum. Mamma washes me every morning."

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown. Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling graveyards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sapping the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE OF CARDUI

Tully, Kas., Feb. 24, 1899.
I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything. In fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Draught when needed and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes

And

The household were brought to Pittsburgh last night by Greenwood.

Play With Punxsutawney—William Stillwell, of this city, yesterday signed a contract to play shortstop with the Punxsutawney (Pa.) base ball team this season. He will leave Monday for Punxsutawney.

Bowling Match—The Eclipse and Rambler bowling teams played three games at Wellsville last night, and all were won by the Eclipse team. Carnahan, of this city, made the highest score, 217, and Fox the poodle score, 93.

Left Town—Lyman Rinehart has left town. Several persons to whom he was indebted have filed accounts for attachment against him. He is understood to have gone east and left instructions that his possessions here be sold off.

Westminster Graduates—Among those recommended for degrees by the faculty of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa., are Miss Anna G. Martin (magna cum laude), East Liverpool; Elmer L. Chamberlain and Miss Madge Taggart, East Palestine.

Sails for Yorkshire—Harry Hancock left yesterday afternoon for New York, from which place he sailed today on board the Campania for Yorkshire, England, for a visit of several months with his mother. William Horton also sailed on the same boat for a visit with relatives in England.

Injured His Fingers—John D. Walker, of the Calcutta road, badly mangled the two front fingers of his right hand while handling stone this morning. Dr. Bailey dressed the wound and it was necessary to remove the nails of both fingers. The injury is very painful and Mr. Walker will not be able to use the members again for some time.

Lecture on Liquid Air—Prof. J. Ernest Woodland has been secured for a lecture in the high school course Friday evening, May 24. He will speak on the wonders of liquid air, illustrating his lecture by experiments of the most interesting character. Marvels are performed with the liquid. Tickets for the lecture are now on sale.

Will Visit England—Mrs. George Barnish, of this city, whose husband died recently, has received a letter from Mr. Barnish's mother, in England, who is now 76 years old, who has learned of her son's death with deep regret. Mrs. George Barnish will start June 29 for a visit to Staffordshire, England, where her late husband's folks reside.

A Slight Clue Obtained—John Rinehart's missing horse and buggy have not yet been located, although a slight clue has been found. It was learned yesterday afternoon that the rig was seen in Chester. It is reported that parties at Burgettstown, Pa., saw the young man who is believed to have stolen the rig, and a description of the horse has been sent there. Chief Thompson has sent postal cards to all parts of West Virginia and Pennsylvania, offering a reward for the missing property.

GRANDVIEW LOT SALE

Great Crowds Expected to Attend Monday—Free Tickets Furnished.

The auction sale of lots to be held at Grandview Monday afternoon is attracting much attention in the city, as never before were such splendid residence sites offered to the people at auction sale. The lots to be sold at auction are situated in the Grandview second addition, above the dust and smoke of the city, and the terms upon which they are to be sold make them within the reach of every person who desires to own a home of their own or to make an investment that will double in value in a short time.

The free tickets to be had at the offices of Herbert & Travis, City Water Works and City Clerk J. N. Hanley, are in great demand, and an extra car will be put on the Grandview line Monday to accommodate the large crowd. Don't fail to attend this sale and buy a lot at a price that is sure to suit you.

"I am a self made man," said the pompous individual, with his chest expanded. The other looked at him critically. "Your excuse is satisfactory," he said.—Brooklyn Life.

Before 50 the most healthful occupation is that of the clergyman. The doctors and the lawyers are close together. After 50 years, according to the figures, it is more healthful to practice medicine or the law than it is to preach.

PRECIOUS STONES.

The Methods by Which They Are Tested by Experts.

In a lecture on precious stones recently delivered before the Industrial association of Berlin, Dr. Immanuel Friedlaender said that the testing of diamonds is comparatively simple. The common test for hardness suffices. If the stone resists strong attacks, it is certain to be genuine; if it does not, the damage is insignificant, as only an imitation has been destroyed. This test, however, is doubtful with rubies. If a ruby can be affected by a steel file or by quartz, it is surely not genuine, but such a test with a topaz is liable to injure a valuable stone.

The test for hardness is of no avail with emeralds, as this stone is not much harder than quartz and in addition possesses the quality of cracking easily.

For examining rubies and emeralds the optical test is best. A glass magnifying about 100 times suffices. Every expert knows that almost all precious stones have little flaws. Nearly every ruby and all emeralds have many defects, which are so characteristic that the genuineness of the stones is readily established. Such a test is very necessary with rubies, because the imitations are very deceiving. Their color is absolutely durable and often much finer than that of the genuine, although it may be stated that a somewhat yellowish tint is always suspicious.

The only reliable way in which genuine rubies can be told from imitations is by the minute air bubbles of the latter, which become clearly visible under the magnifying glass. These are not to be found in the natural gem. On the other hand, the imitations lack certain defects characteristic of genuine rubies—certain vacuums, whose outlines are much more indistinct than those of the air bubbles in imitations.

True emeralds have similar characteristic defects, such as inclosures of liquids and curious dendrites. Sapphires also show peculiar netlike formations.

Itching Scalp.

Scald Head and the Most Violent Forms of Eczema and Salt Rheum Promptly and Thoroughly Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Among small children, scald head and similar itching skin diseases are most prevalent, and the worst feature is that these ailments, which are apparently trivial at first, almost invariably develop into chronic eczema if neglected.

There is but one treatment that physicians are unanimous in recommending for scald heads and eczema, and that is Dr. Chase's Ointment, the great antiseptic healer. It promptly stops the distressing itching which accompanies these diseases and positively produces a thorough and complete cure.

Scores of thousands of men and women stand ready to vouch for the merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment. It has brought about some of the most marvelous cures ever recorded. In justice to yourself and family, you cannot do without it in your home.

Mr. J. H. Grant, 716 Joseph Campan avenue, Detroit, Mich., writes: "For three years I have been troubled by an intense itching on my body. So terrible was it at times that I could get no rest night or day. I tried all kinds of ointments and blood purifiers, but could get no relief. Mr. H. A. Nicolai of 379 Division street recommended Dr. Chase's Ointment. A few applications stopped the itching and I have felt nothing since."

Baby Eczema.

Mr. F. S. Rose of 133 Sixteenth street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Our baby boy suffered for some time with that wretched eczema, and we were unable to find anything to cure or even relieve his pain. A few applications of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment stopped the itching and healed the sores, and a bright, natural skin now takes their place."

Dr. Chase's Ointment does not cause pain when applied, but soothes the sore or inflamed surface. 50 cents at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
